

Jack D. Bulldog

Washington, DC | Detroit, MI
bulldog@georgetown.edu | (678) 999-8212

Announcement #: ZYX-222-123456

EDUCATION

Georgetown University, Georgetown College

Bachelor of Arts, GPA: 3.50/4.00

Major: Economics, Minor: Government

Expected: May 2023

Washington, DC

Macroeconomics Principles: Gained proficiency in economic analysis of aggregate employment, income, and pricing. Developed graphical and mathematical models of decision-making processes by examining interactions between consumers, businesses, and other economic agencies. Collaborated in a group of 5 to research, design and submit a presentation on the response by competitive businesses when market failures occur.

Political Ecology: Conducted field research in Washington, DC in an effort to study how cultural and political power dynamics impact relationships between human beings and the environment. Drafted and submitted a 5-page research paper concerning unethical business practices utilized in the food production industry that severely impact minority and low-income communities in the northeast region of the United States.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Media Assistant

Georgetown University Library, Washington, DC

Supervisor: Jane Hoya (202-202-2002)

April 2022 – Present

8 Hours per Week

$16 per Hour

Check out books and answer technology related questions from over 7,000 undergraduate and graduate students at Georgetown University. Monitor and maintain library materials such as books and electronic appliances in order to properly track and catalog resources available for students. Organized and spearheaded the first annual “STEM Spectacular Event” in the media center in an effort to present information about STEM careers to 49 undergraduate students.

Teaching Assistant

Georgetown College, Washington, DC

Supervisor: Hoya Saxa (202-765-4321)

January 2022 – May 2022

5 Hours per Week

$15 per Hour

Supported undergraduate students enrolled in an International Politics course by providing weekly office hours to field student questions and concerns regarding course material. Conducted a week long extra credit class competition to promote effective study habits prior to a mid-term examination, resulting in a total class average grade increase of 3%. Aided the professor with technological difficulties by troubleshooting Zoom and Google Drive issues in order to create an effective virtual classroom environment for students. Drafted two 5-page example research essays to assist the professor in displaying both satisfactory and unsatisfactory ways of completing the final assignment.

Shift Manager

Burger King, Detroit, MI

Supervisor: Poto Mac (202-123-4567)

March 2020 – August 2021

35 Hours per Week

$12 per Hour

Supervised 18 crew members to safely and efficiently prepare and serve food to customers. Resolved complaints and answered questions daily from 40+ customers resulting in a 11% increase in positive customer satisfaction. Oversaw and enforced all cash, inventory, security and labor policies in order to preserve and maintain upkeep of the restaurant in accordance with franchise and government regulations. Reinforced proper food safety standards and procedures by consistently temping all food materials before preparation.

EXTRACURRICULAR EXPERIENCE

GU Votes

August 2022 – Present

Student Advocate

5 Hours per Week

Member of student-led initiative to enhance the voting culture at Georgetown by simplifying the voting process for students through the creation of canva infographics and social media posts. Increase voter turnout rates in state and federal elections among Georgetown's undergraduate population by 9% by tabling on campus and sending out weekly newsletters. Designed a 15 minute PowerPoint presentation for fellow student advocates and staff volunteers to present to organizations in an effort to increase the spread of information.

Debater

September 2021 – Present

Georgetown University Policy Debate

15 Hours per Week

Participate on Georgetown's undergraduate debate team as a policy debater. Collaborate with 5 team members to develop case theories in order to analyze debate topics, draft possible opening arguments and rebuttals for national competitions. Examine the legitimacy of potential sources in order to ensure that factual and reliable evidence is being presented to opponents and judges. Received the "Best Debater Award" at the 47th annual Stanford Debate Tournament.

Board Member

September 2020 – Present

Latin American Student Association

8 Hours per Week

Treasurer: Preside at all weekly executive board and general body meetings in order to relay updated information to all members and delegate tasks accordingly to officers and committee chairpersons. Collaborate with the executive board to construct a working budget for the 2021-2022 school year in order to have an effective plan for the use of $1,500.

Board Liaison: Coordinate communication and serve as the liaison between the Latin American Student Association and the administration. Maintained and established relationships with incoming freshmen interested in or connected to Latin American culture through the use of social media and information meetings, resulting in an 11% increase in general membership.

AWARDS

Dean's List (Fall 2021, Spring 2022): Awarded to Georgetown students who earn a semester GPA of 3.5 and above.

The B.J. Phoenix Medal: Awarded to a student in the Department of Economics who has shown the most progress and is the most rounded student in the field of economics.

TECHNICAL & LANGUAGE SKILLS

Proficient: MS Office Suite, Google Drive, Strata

Basic: Python, Adobe Photoshop,

Language Fluency: English and Spanish